

24 January, 2008
Release to press

+420 733 214 229

www.NALICOCZ.com

Prague, Czech Republic – NALICO International, a global financial services firm, introduced the launch of NALICO CZ this evening at a business seminar and reception held at the historic residence of US Ambassador to the Czech Republic, Mr. Richard W. Graber. The seminar was attended by representatives of several business sectors including private investment banking, commercial banking, insurance brokers and agencies, and law firms. NALICO CZ provides US federal and state tax preparation to US expats living in the Czech Republic. Tax returns are prepared by US Certified Public Accountants working in Prague. The company also brings modern US-designed life insurance and annuities to both Czech citizens and to US expats. Commercial Counselor Gregory O'Connor opened the seminar held in the residence's large and ornate conference area with an introduction of NALICO International's Chairman and CEO, Ronald Blake. Ambassador Graber closed the seminar and invited attendees to a reception that allowed attendees to meet and ask questions of the 5-member NALICO staff in Prague led by James Fuller, Managing Director.